Future Skyline Stars take to the Court; Hard Work Paying Off

Skyline Basketball's 7th grade youth team is undefeated in the Mesa Youth Basketball League which hosts teams from Mountain View, Mesa, Red Mountain, Dobson and Westwood.

Coach Brock Cooper's team is led by future Skyline star Jordan Lee, a 6'2 guard currently attending Smith Jr. High. Jordan is regarded as one of the state's best 7th grade players.

Also capturing the eye of the Skyline varsity coaches is 5'9 point guard, Mikey Mercer, a versatile guard with a strong work ethic.

The 8th grade Skyline team is hooping in the Elite division of the MYB league. The Elite Division displays the best 8th grade teams in the Mesa Youth League.

"Some of the players on our 7th & 8th grade teams have been with us for 5 years striving to improve their game and they are now reaping the rewards."

"Skyline Basketball is about dedication, determination and discipline...these guys fit the mold very well. The future is bright for Skyline Basketball," states head varsity coach Michael Wirth, Skyline's all-time winningest basketball coach.

The Skyline 7th grade team is the favorite to win the Mesa Youth Basketball Championship on May 15. Coach Brock Cooper, a Skyline varsity assistant and head JV coach, likes his team's chances.

"If we continue to work hard and improve each day, there aren't a whole lot of teams that can beat us."

Skyline's 8th grade team should make a run for the championship of the Elite Division, as well.

Jake Pitcher and Anvil Sinsabaugh accept scholarships and will be roommates!

Coyote Hoop News

Seniors Jake Pitcher, Anvil Sinabaugh, and Junior Angel Ung flew 1500 miles for a college visit over Easter Break.

It was the first time that Angel and Anvil had ever been to the Midwest and was Angel's first plane ride.

Sitting in the last row in the plane, the crew was chaperoned by Coach Cooper, an Iowa native. After the 2 ½ hour plane trip, the boys then drove one hour to Coach Cooper's family home in Sioux City, Iowa.

In the morning, Anvil met with the MSC football coaches, Jake and Angel with the basketball coaches, and then the boys took a campus tour and played pickup games with Pitcher's future team. Following the games, the MSC staff took the boys to lunch at a town favorite, Bob Roe's Point After for some Pizza. Following lunch and a tour of the city, they enjoyed a couple nights on campus with a Morningside host player, Brady Lakes.

On Easter Sunday, Jake, Angel and Anvil attended church with Coach Cooper and his entire family. Following Easter dinner, the crew headed to the airport to catch a plane back to Mesa.

Jake Pitcher signed to play basketball at Morningside and Anvil Sinsabaugh has signed to play football there, as well. The two will call Dimmit Hall home for the next four years as they plan to be roommates. Both Jake and Anvil received academic and athletic scholarships!
